DISPERSING BILLIARDS WITH MOVING SCATTERERS

Mikko Stenlund

Department of Mathematics, University of Rome II "Tor Vergata"

We propose a model of dispersing billiards with slowly moving scatterers, in which the locations of the scatterers are shifted a small distance after each collision. We demonstrate exponential loss of memory for the system by a coupling approach.